And we have history. One retort that historically proved attractive is to accept the violation concept but deny that the laws of nature are immutable; instead the truly immutable laws are higher laws-laws that govern not only the behavior of physical entities but the interactions of physical and non-physical entities-and what appear to us to be violations of the laws of nature are really nothing less than instances of a higher law Trench -17; cf. That heat never rises higher than a firm warm glow, one that brings out the sweetness of the subtle coconut oil used to finish and the drizzle of mango, ginger, and green chile sauce that becomes the final note.
