It's considered a liminal time, when the veil between life and death grows. I buy as much as I can locally from people I know and trust as in other vendors at the farmers markets I vend in. The pro thinks differently. These beliefs concerning the various divisions of the human body suggest that it would have been easier for an African to understand NDE as a natural phenomenon which involves the death of human beings and where the soul or mind of the deceased visits the world of the dead whilst living alongside the living.
